The cyber threats facing your business can seem vast, difficult to identify and, possibly, unmanageable. But with the right partners and with the right expertise, those threats can be controlled.

Paying for the reputational and material damage caused by a cyber-attack is of course important, but we believe it is far more important to prevent these attacks happening in the first place. To do that we and our partners work closely with you, tailoring our service to your business, to ensure you have the best possible defences in place.

Cyber risks are multi-faceted and so to defend against them, we take a multi-faceted approach - the Golden Triangle - encompassing your people and your processes as well as your technology.

This training is available in group or one-on-one sessions, including mock interviews to practice what has been learned.

Your people are your greatest asset, but they can also be your greatest weakness. Our phishing simulation will help you understand how susceptible your people are to attack and identify key points of weakness across the organisation.

Cost

Negotiable. Starting from £2,500 for 20 targets

PROVIDER: CyberScout

CyberScout has been helping to protect businesses from cyber-attacks for nearly two decades. They will apply that expertise to your organisation, conducting mock email phishing campaigns to assess the susceptibility of your people to genuine attacks.

The standard CyberScout package will run a phishing campaign with the option of an enhanced, simulated 'embedded malware' scenario, should you wish to dig a bit deeper.

With your IT teams, CyberScout will conduct a full assessment of your business' testing environment and parameters, carry out the simulation and follow up with a full report detailing the findings of the test, identifying where your vulnerabilities lie and providing data-based recommendations for improvement.

Working from Home Exercise

Goal

With more and more people working from home, it is vital that your IT teams and C-suite understand the risks this poses to your business and how you can mitigate them.

Cost
